GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, DEC. 29, 1938

O. P. Schumann, Editor and Proper

Hardly had the last Christmas Open Jan. 9th carol been sung and visitors from out of the city started their home as much as six feet in depth. The snowfall within 24 hours was about 20 inches according to good

The state and county highway departments worked desperately and did an excellent job of keeping the main highways fit for travel. The side roads, however, were better avoided. City trucks carted the snow out of the main business streets but before that could be finished many an auto had to be pushed away from the curb.

Garages were busy with their wreckers and many were the calls for help. With the snow failing in blankets it was hard to see and highways were hard to follow. The storm raged from Monday evening to Wednesday morning. Except that it was hard to keep homes warm because of the piercing wind and sifting anow we have heard of no family having to suffer and no serious casualties were reported. The official thermometer at the Grayling Fish Hatchery hovered around 12 degrees above zero all during the storm, never getting any lower than that. When the storm had subsided Wednesday morning the mercury dropped to

Golden Glove Tourney Starts Jan. 23rd

The Rube Babbitt Chapter of the Izaak Walton League of Grayling is having their Second Annual Golden Gloves tournament January 23rd, 24th, 25th, 27th and 28th at the Grayling School gymnasium. This tournament will be open to boys over 16 years of age in surrounding communities and CCC camps.

The winners of this tournament will be taken to Bay City, with all expenses paid by the Rube Babbitt Chapter, Izaak Walton League of America, to enter the ors for its approval.

Word was received by friends Wednesday of the death that morning of Mrs. Karoline Kjoi-Peter Kjolhede. Mrs Kjolhede been ailing with heart trouble since her return from trip to Denmark last summer. Death occurred at the home of her_stepson, Theodore Kjolhede at Grant, where she had made her home since becoming ill.

Rev. and Mrs. Kjolhede were residents of Grayling for 23 years during which time the former was pastor of the local Danish Lutheran Church. They left Grayling in 1981 for Grant, Mich.. when the Reverend's health be gan to fail him. He passed away in 1937 at the age of 93 years.

Mrs. Kjolhede was president of the Santal Mission in America for a number of years, which position required a lot of correspondence. There are many in Grayling who will be grieved to learn of Mrs. Kjolhede's passing. Funeral servvices will be held in Grant Friday afternoon and in-terment will be in Newell, Iowa, beside the remains of Rev. Kjol-

In the Mancelona game conditions were almost identical and from midway in the first quarter the issue was never in doubt, the final score being 31-10.

Both the Roscommon Mancelona squads are composed of tall and rangy boys and Gray ling found it almost impossible to score effectively.

We believe however that this alone would fail to account for the sudden reversal of form shown by the local players. Due credit must be given to the victorious teams for playing heads up ball, making and taking the breaks, and in general playing an excellent brand of ball.

However, at times, the local players have found their offense and defense to be practically nonexistent and have allowed the opposition to break away for many baskets which should never have been scored.

Queer Habits of Fish

Nile catfish adopts the strange habit of swimming on its ! back and as a consequence its stomsch is colored darker than its back, whereas in most fish the back is always darker than the underpart. Another strange swimmer is the shrimp-fish, or needle-fish, of the Indian ocean. These little chaps always live together in small shoals of five or six and they swim in a vertical position, snout upwards. They can, however, swim in the ordinary horizontal position and have even been seen swimming about in a vertical position with queer-looking tail end upwards

Magic Mind Reading It's supposed to be a ticklish business to ask a lady her age. Here's a way to do it without danger: Ask her to put down the number of the month in which she was born. Multiply it by 2, add 5, multiply by add her age, and subtract 365. When she gives you the result, you must mentally add 115. Now the last two figures of the total are her age, and the first figure is the number of the month she was born in. Surpose you get 719 Then she is 19 years old, and her birthday is in the seventh month, July. This simple trick will work for any age

Name Isabella Believed Originally From Jezebel

The name Isabella, like Isabel, has long been considered a form of Elizabeth, meaning "consecrated to God," but it probably came originally from Jezebel, meaning "conse-crated to Baal," Baal being the Talse god" of the Hebrews. One authority, writes Florence A. Cowles in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, says Jezebel probably meant "chaste, or pure." Many are the royal women who have borne the name of Isabella.

Isabella of Bavaria (d. 1435). wife of Charles VI of France, did not lead a life above reproach, nor did Isabella, wife of Edward II of England.

Isabella I (d. 1504), joint ruler with Ferdinand of Spain, is the most famous bearer of the name in history, for she it was who, legend , sold her jewels to raise money to finance Columbus' voyage to the New world.

Isabella d'Este, Marchesa of Mantua, Fifteenth century, was so charming that she was called "the first lady of the world." Isabella, daughter of the Earl of Mar, was the first wife of Robert Bruce.

There is a light brown color called isabella after Isabella of Austria, daughter of Philip II, who vowed not to change her liner until Ostend was captured. But the siege lasted from 1601 to 1604, so-well, enough

His Last Dime By Katherine Edelman

AN DRISCOLL was broke Well, almost broke. He had one thin dime, hiding in the dark depths of a purse that had once held bills of three figures. He had held it for 20 years, ever since he had found it while ploughing on his father's farm. His lucky dime-that's what he had called it Dan laughed grimly at the thought Lucky! Had anyone ever been so unlucky as him? Here was the whole town preparing for Chr. stmas, shop ping, spending oodles of money, and he was a penniless, weary wander er. A lucky dime!

A little place around the corner caught his eye. Dan entered, his nostrils quivering under the tantalizing odors. He looked around with greedy eyes, his mouth watering with longing. Soup, roast fowl, potatoes, luscious mince pie! But he mustn't think about such things. He had just one dime-the price of a cup of coffee and a doughnut, or a hamburger. Which would it be? 1 Just 20 years have passed since the world went wild with news of -ARMISTICE!

1918, the order to "cease firing" sped from front to front on France's great battlefield. It marked an end to the greatest armed conflict in history The world went deliriously happy but it did not forget the brave sol diers (above) who had learned the berrors of war and could now rest

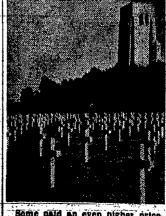

War's end came after Marsha Foch and his staff received the Ger man pleninotentiaries at Rethondes stood the railroad car in which peace was signed, France placed the

The delirium of armistice returned a few weeks later when the doughboys came marching home Thousands passed under the trium phal arch erected in New York city A few days later they were mus tered out and headed for home.

But some were not so fortunate venty years later, votoran hospitals throughout the nation house invalids left by the World war, strongwilled men who are striving to "come back" in the face of physical and mental ravages left by gas and shrapnel. Many have succeeded. overcoming their handicaps and becoming useful citizens. They paid a high price to give the world peace.

Some paid an even nigher price with their lives. in Flanders field the popples still bloom over the graves of vallant American soldiers Meanwhile, 20 years after armistice. too many of the World was's lessons have been forgotten. In remember-ing the sacrifices that gave us peaclies the world's only hope for ocinned peace.
